

COPY FOR WEBSITE AND PROMO - THE THREE QUESTIONS

Phin Performing Arts presents The Three Questions, based on the illustrated story by Jon J Muth.

Brought gently to life through expressive contemporary dance, imaginative scenery, and sensitive narration, The Three Questions is the story of a child's journey to discover how to do good in this world. The child believes that if he could answer three important questions, it will lead him on the right path:

When is the right time to do things?

Who is the most important one?

What is the right thing to do?

Determined to help their friend answer these questions, Heron, Monkey, and Dog, each with their own point of view, embark on a journey that takes them up the mountain to consult with wise Turtle who will surely have the answers. Through the adventures of his friends (are they real or imagined?), the child discovers the answers for himself.

This heartwarming and beautifully staged dance production explores compassion and living in the present moment.
