BEATLES FOR BABIES

PRESS DOSSIER

Beatles for babies

Four musicians on the move (violin, saxophone, cello and percussion) and a dancer invite babies and families to participate in a warm and exciting tribute to The Beatles.

A show / concert with a non-childish, respectful and artistically contemporary language.

A visual and sound proposal in which children and adults enjoy a selection of songs with sophisticated arrangements, performed by musicians with proven professional backgrounds.

There is a suggestive stage, games with interactive videos and the public participates with percussion instruments.

Adults, babies and children are invited to actively participate in the show. Babies can move freely around and inside the stage and are allowed to interact with the performers.

Children sing, dance, interact, play and enjoy music, movement and a visually attractive environment. Parents sing, dance and interact with children and performers recognizing universal songs.

Music with the right volume for the little ones, but with the authenticity and credibility of adult concerts.

La petita malumaluga

Contemporary arts for contemporary babies, children and adults.

La petita malumaluga is an internationally-acclaimed company of world-class dancers and musicians from Barcelona that have created a unique approach to performing arts through interacting with the most incredible audience: babies, toddlers and their families.

We believe in respectful creative projects, provocatively non-childish languages and artistically contemporary productions.

Their productions have been presented in China, Norway, United Kingdom, France, Denmark, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Finland and Macao, in some of the most important theaters and festivals of the international scene: Teatre Nacional de Catalunya (Barcelona), Teatro Español (Madrid), Mercat de las Flors (Barcelona), Festival Grec (Barcelona), Shanghai Children's Art Theater, Festpillene Bergen International Festival (Norway), National Kaohsiung Center for the Arts – Weiwuying (Taiwan), International Arts Carnival (Hong Kong), Macao Cultural Center and Dansa València.

The creations of the company have been recommended by the “Red de Teatros” and have been nominated for the Max and Butaca Awards (equivalent to the Tony Awards in Spain and in Catalonia).

Beatles for babies PRESS REVIEWS

"It's not hard to see why this nearly wordless show has gone down such a storm internationally [...] A real theatre experience for young audiences[...]. Excellent!"

The Stage (United Kingdom)

"They have created a serious, attractive and energetic show that fusions music, movement and the visual arts."

Time Out (Catalonia)

"The interaction is just as important as the live connection with the smallest audience [...] Tender and infallible."

El Punt Avui (Catalonia)

"Babies could move freely around the stage while musicians played the most famous songs of The Beatles [...] and with an intense rhythm they managed to keep the children's attention. The light was also right to make the little ones hallucinate."

Bergens Tidende (Norway)

La petita malumaluga PRESS REVIEWS

“His proposals also thrill those who left childhood behind some time ago”.

Ignasi Gaya, TV3

“An unclassifiable show beloved of sensitivity, suitable for auditoriums aimed at very first and future music lovers”

Andreu Sotorra, Recomana.cat

“We get excited about the authenticity and sincerity of the answers. That was beautiful!”

Teresa Bruna, Teatralnet

“They have worried about creating a sober, attractive and energetic show that mixes music, movement and visuals”

Maria Junyent, Time Out

“A show that has fascinated where it has gone, children are hypnotized.”

Carlos Sala, La Razón

Musicians to throw Beatles party for babies in big tent

2019-08-08 07:37 Comment 0

If you think the Beatles are for grown-ups, think again, as musicians from the Spanish group "La Petita Malumaluga" ("The Little Malumaluga" in Catalan) are ready to prove that even babies will start to dance when they hear some classic Beatles songs, all taking place under a tent on the stage.

La Petita Malumaluga will be bringing its "Beatles for Babies" show to Macau in a tent-like 360-degree stage where the little ones can roll, crawl and trot around the musicians as they play those famous pop tunes with the violin, saxophone, cello and percussion, a sophisticated yet energetic production that parents could also enjoy.

"We like to think we communicate this production as an idea for [children aged] zero to three because it is quite unusual and we like them to [be] involve[d]", said Albert Vila, one of the performers, at a meet-the-press event yesterday at the Macau Cultural Centre (CCM), where they will have six shows starting today, as part of the centre's ARTmusing Summer programme.
